

Invitation to the symposium: Cardinal Principles of Stroke Management

Special Joint Symposium EFNS – WSO (World Stroke Organisation)
15th EFNS Congress, Budapest, Hungary
13th September 2011, 14.00-15.30, Hall A

Agenda

- 14.00 – 14.10 The educational mission of the WSO
Bo Norrving, Lund, Sweden
- 14.10 – 14.20 The numbers and needs of stroke education in Eastern Europe
Anna Czlonkowska, Warsaw, Poland
- 14.20 – 14.35 Early recognition and diagnosis of stroke
Natan Bornstein, Tel Aviv, Israel
- 14.35 – 14.50 Early mobilisation of stroke patients
Bo Norrving, Lund, Sweden
- 14.50 – 15.05 Medical treatment of stroke
Peter Sandercock, Edinburgh, UK
- 15.05 – 15.20 Prevention of complications in acute stroke
Michael Brainin, Krems, Austria

Chairs:

Anna Czlonkowska
Warsaw, Poland

Michael Brainin
Krems, Austria

ANNOUNCEMENT

Founding sponsor of the WSA

The World Stroke Organisation (WSO) is happy to invite you to the joint EFNS–WSO symposium on Tuesday, 13th September, from 14.00 – 15.30, Hall A, where international stroke experts will be there to inform you about “Cardinal Principles of Stroke Management”. The session will be co-chaired by Anna Czlonkowska, Warsaw, Poland, and Michael Brainin, Krems, Austria.

Introducing the World Stroke Academy www.world-stroke-academy.org

- The educational division of the World Stroke Organisation (WSO)
- Free registration
- Guideline-based stroke education on a global scale
- Information for patients and healthcare professionals
- Virtual symposia
- Interactive learning modules with CME accreditation

Now available:

- ✓ Hyperacute stroke (3 CME points)
- ✓ TIA (2 CME points)
- ✓ Dysphagia (2 CME points)
- ✓ Stroke in pregnancy (2 CME points)
- ✓ Stroke in the elderly (2 CME points)
- ✓ Basic stroke services (1 CME point)

